

Active & Sensory Play – parachutes, scarves, bean bags, jumping sacks, sensory discs, rhythm & musical instrument sets, and more.

Learning Skill – Daily physical activity is part of a child's foundation for life. These manipulatives develop gross & fine motor skills, hand-eye coordination, whole-body awareness, and foster opportunities for social interaction

Professional Resources – Many different titles across the curriculum giving ideas for circle time, art, math, science, learning disabilities, potty-training, recipes, learning environments and more.

Learning Skill – Parents are learners too! Understanding ways to encourage learning will ensure that your child gets off to a 'great start'

CD's / DVD's – Includes such performers as Greg & Steve and Hap Palmer, as well as various genres such as creative movement, multicultural, curriculum connections, nursery rhymes and nature.

Learning Skill – Promotes listening & rhythm skills, following directions, and exposure to the arts

Puppets – Groups include: Animal Pals, Multicultural Friends, Community Helpers, Everyday People, Finger Puppets

Learning Skill – Dramatic play develops self-awareness and offers children the opportunity to discuss feelings, act out stories, and develop oral language skills

Puzzles – Categories include: Animals Up Close, Children of the World, Moods & Emotions, Seasons, Weather & Bugs.

Learning Skill – develop fine motor skills and hand-eye coordination

Storytelling – 16 Story bags featuring a book and its character, 6 storytelling kits give opportunities to retell favorite stories.

Learning Skill – cognitive skills, receptive and oral language development

Learning Games & Activities – Many different manipulatives teaching ABC's, Counting, Shapes, Colors, Patterns, Nutrition and Self-Care.

Learning Skill – Using a hands-on approach to teach basic skills gives a solid learning foundation to build upon

